

QUIZ

Topic: Guess the European Country Behind the Tradition

1. In which European country is it traditional to dye Easter eggs, with the first egg always colored red and used as a symbol of health and good luck?
 - A) Bulgaria
 - B) Germany
 - C) France
2. In which country does the tradition of “La Tomatina” take place, where people throw tomatoes at each other during an annual festival?
 - A) Italy
 - B) Spain
 - C) Portugal
3. In which country is the celebration of “Midsummer” most characteristic, featuring dancing around a maypole and marking the longest day of the year?
 - A) Sweden
 - B) Greece
 - C) Hungary
4. In which European country is it traditional to wear “martenitsa” – red and white ornaments symbolizing health, worn until the first signs of spring?
 - A) Romania
 - B) Bulgaria
 - C) Slovakia
5. In which country is it traditional on New Year’s Eve to melt lead and pour it into water to predict the future?
 - A) Germany
 - B) Austria
 - C) Finland

6. In which country is the “Kukeri” tradition practiced, where people wear masks and costumes to scare away evil spirits through noise and dance?
 - A) Serbia
 - B) Bulgaria
 - C) Croatia
7. In which European country is it customary during Christmas to leave shoes by the door to be filled with gifts?
 - A) Netherlands
 - B) Belgium
 - C) Czech Republic
8. In which country is it traditional to throw furniture out of the window on New Year’s Eve as a symbol of a fresh start?
 - A) Italy
 - B) Spain
 - C) France
9. In which country does the tradition of “survakane” exist, where children gently tap adults with decorated sticks for health and prosperity?
 - A) Bulgaria
 - B) North Macedonia
 - C) Greece
10. In which European country is it traditional to jump over fire during summer festivals as a symbol of purification and health?
 - A) Bulgaria
 - B) Lithuania
 - C) Ireland

Correct Answers

1-A, 2-B, 3-A, 4-B, 5-C, 6-B, 7-A, 8-A, 9-A, 10-A